Attention Hy-Vee Shoppers!

It's October and the leaves aren't all that's turning. As the temperature drops, we turn our attention to what the coming months hold. We start thinking about cozy nights binge watching our favorite shows, pots of stew simmering on the stove and the holidays. But wait, don't turn the page too fast! There are still plenty of fall outdoor activities to enjoy. You know, like football games, long walks, weenie roasts and raking leaves. Yes, raking. It's good exercise! Then there's the part where you get to jump in the big pile of crunchy fall fun. So, enjoy the fall colors and stop to smell the mums.

THE HEAT IS ON

A steaming pot of chili is at the heart of fall football madness, especially among college fans. We asked seven Hy-Vee chefs to show school spirit with chili recipes that represent

Iowa Hawkeye Chili

Hy-Vee's Chef Shannon added black beans & yellow pepper in his turkey chili so it reflects @Ulowa colors.
