Attention Hy-Vee Shoppers!

The season of thanks is upon us. When gathered around the Thanksgiving table, many of us are asked, "What are you thankful for?" For a great deal of us, the answer is usually a who. We can all agree, there are many special people in our lives that we are truly grateful for...family, friends, neighbors and, even community members, that we may not even know the names of. They are all very special in their own rights, and it's the time of year we tell them or show them. So, today, we thank, you, our customers. We smile because you make it so easy to do.
